DIOCESE OF SALFORD Parish of Corpus Christi, Bolton 28 April 2019 – Divine Mercy Sunday

This week the Gospel is chosen because it relates "what happened today" - eight days after Easter, Jesus comes again to his disciples. The story of Thomas's doubt and faith leads us to think about our doubts and faith - but always in the context of being part of the family of the Church. Remember last week, and the baptisms you may have witnessed, or the renewal of your own baptismal promises: "this is the faith of the Church, the faith in which we are baptised."

Think Vocation

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, in this Year of Mercy, we think about priests called to be channels of God's mercy in the sacrament of Reconciliation; that they may always convey the unconditional love God has for us. We also think about all those (priests and people) whose vocation is to be involved in the corporal works of mercy, stretching out the loving hand of God to those in need - caring for the hungry, thirsty, naked, homeless, sick, imprisoned; and burying the dead.

Marriage Matters

Taking time out for our relationship: On Easter Sunday night the risen Jesus greets the Apostles saying 'Peace be with you'. How can we find peace in such a hectic world? We are called to make time for our relationship with God, and make a diary entry for our personal relationship. Listening and dialogue build intimacy and peace - with each other and with God.
