Twenty-Fifth Week of Ordinary Time

How easy to take the words of Jesus out of context: “Use money to win you friends,” is one of those lines that sounds strange to us outside the context of the parable and the teaching in today’s Gospel. Even the parable itself can seem a little strange - is Jesus really recommending that we act like dishonest stewards? No, of course not! The point that reveals this is hidden half way down: “The children of this world are more astute in dealing with their own kind...” Jesus in a way praises the effort of the dishonest steward, but wishes that it was directed less to worldly things, but to the things of heaven. And this is the message that we are to take: where do we direct our energies - to making money, fame, fortune and success, or to finding “friends in heaven”?

Marriage Matters

Money, money, money...not much changes! Dishonest traders, crippling taxes, money lenders and unpaid debts - things haven’t changed much since the time of Amos. Honesty and trust are vital regarding all forms of wealth. Let us ask God for the gift of wisdom when deciding together how to use our money, wealth or scarcity. Dishonesty about money shows lack of trust and often leads to divorce.

Think Vocation

“Praise the Lord, who raises the poor.” Many people are inspired by the Gospel message of reaching out to the poor and marginalised. To present yourself at the service of the Church as a priest or Religious can be an opportunity to really make a difference to the lives of people in need. Let us ask ourselves whether we really are sincere in our prayers and generous with our financial contributions.

In 2019, the World Day will be celebrated on 29 September. Pope Francis has chosen the theme "It is not just about migrants" to show up our blind-spots and make sure no one remains excluded from society, whether a long-time resident or someone newly-arrived.
