The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Good Shepherd Sunday

Today is traditionally called Good Shepherd Sunday because of the Gospel narratives (from John 10) read each year, in which Jesus talks of himself as the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his flock. A general theme to the Scriptures is the person of Jesus and what he has achieved by the Paschal Mystery (his dying and rising): the first reading talks of his name, and the power of the name of Jesus to save: one of the results of the power of this name is that in him we are all God's children and are promised an eternal reward. All this is summed up in the Gospel, in which Jesus talks of himself as the real shepherd, who is prepared to do anything for his flock, even to the point of giving his life. This he said before his passion, but in Eastertide we read it with the benefit of hindsight. His words are true, and by his dying and rising he has truly saved his flock.

Marriage Matters

We lay down our lives, we go beyond... Couples can relate to the notion of 'shepherding' with regards to their children: "I know my own and my own know me". Even in crowds, our children will recognise our voices and we theirs. Also, just as Jesus spoke today of 'laying down His life', when marrying, we made a solemn vow to lay down our lives for one another.

A Day of Special Prayer for Vocations

Today, the fourth Sunday of Easter, Good Shepherd Sunday, is chosen as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood and Consecrated Life. Please pray for all people who are discerning a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, those who are preparing for ordination or religious profession and for all priests and consecrated men and women. This year, the days of prayer for our own parishes are: 9 May (St Brendan's) and 14 June (St John's).

At our Masses this weekend, we will have a special collection for the fund that is used to train future priests. This year there are six students currently in seminary, including one who will be ordained priest this year.

Vocation Enquiries

Think Vocation

Pending Move: Fr Michael is hopeful that he will be able to announce where he is moving to next weekend. It is likely that the move will take place after the weekend of 12/13 May (rather than 5/6 May as previously stated).

Damaged Car: Last Sunday morning a parishioner's car was damaged on the car park at St John's. It was scraped by another car, causing damage to the bodywork and the alloy wheels. If you were the driver, please make yourself known to me so that I can put you in touch with the person whose vehicle you damaged. Thanks. Fr Michael
