All Saints

There is so much kindness in the world today, ordinary people are doing extraordinary things, caring for and encouraging all of us to stop looking inwards and to look outwards at the troubles facing this generation and doing something about it. It is truly one of the fruits of this dreadful time that we are seeing signs of hope, love, and sacrifice throughout our society.

This movement of the ordinary people in our society is reflected in the Gospel we have proclaimed to us today. The essence of the message contained in the Beatitudes is that there is great power in the humblest of actions and that all who look to the Kingdom of heaven are saints and will receive their heavenly reward. It is a proclamation of hope to the people; that those, whose work often goes unnoticed, are seen by God and He rejoices in their actions.

There is much pain in the world; we are often separated from those we have loved and consolation seems so distant. Then we see a friend, a neighbour, and their compassion shows in their actions as they enfold us in a gesture of love. How many times has your heart been lifted by a word, a smile or a simple wave; we are surrounded by goodness and we only have to reach out to attain it. There are many great saints, people who have lived heroic lives, brought before us as examples of great piety and sacrifice. But there are far more saints who, by their simple faith, fill us, their families and friends, with that same faith, that spirit that leads us to emulate them, to carry on those little things that make our world a better place for our children.

We are God's children, He loves us and encourages us to live our lives as a testimony to Him: to be vessels of faith, hope, and charity in His world. When Jesus stood, on that hillside in Galilee, he did not paint a picture that was all beauty and light. He understood that the way he was going, and asking us to go, would not be easy. The Sermon on the Mount is also called the Proclamation of the Kingdom. Jesus speaks of the poor, the humble, those who mourn, those who are persecuted, imprisoned, those who hunger and thirst for what is right; these are the ones he calls as saints. On this the Feast of All Saints, when we remember all those who have gone before us, as saints, into heaven we must remember, also, those who are saints on this earth today and keep them in our prayers.

Prayer Resource - Lord's Day at Home

The Liturgy Office has prepared a service called "The Lord's Day at Home", based on the Sunday Scriptures, that you can pray on your own or with your family. It is particularly aimed at those not able to follow a Mass on the internet. This week's Lord's Day at Home prayer sheet can be found by clicking here.

November - Holy Souls

In this month we pray, in a special way, for those who have died. Why pray for them? Because it is the way we help them to be purified so as to enter heaven. Because we are all united in prayer to each other, to Mary, the angels and saints, the faithful departed and us here below, we can offer up not just prayers but our good works and sacrifices as well. We can 'apply' the merits gained by our prayers and good deeds to help the souls in purgatory.

Please note there will be three Masses on All Souls Day, praying for the faithful departed, for parishioners and for the Holy Father's Intentions. (Thank you once again for generosity of the stewards, who offer their valuable time to allow us to continue to function as a Church)

We now have envelopes and you are invited to place the names of your deceased relatives and friends and all for whom you wish to pray during the month of the Holy Souls (no donation required). Please return the envelope to either church or post through the presbytery letterboxes. If you are unable to make it to church at this time, you may email your names to office@sbsj.org.uk All envelopes received will be placed on the sanctuary in the baskets marked Holy Souls. We will pray for the Faithful Departed at all the Holy Masses. May they rest in peace.

As we are not able to hold our Annual Mass for the Deceased, we will display a list (in both churches) of all those who died during the last year. We will continue to pray for all those who have died (and their families). If you wish to light a candle for a loved one, please do so with care. Thank you

200 Club: Due to Covid-19 restrictions it hasn't been possible to hold the monthly draws. Twelve draws will take place before the next subscriptions are due (March 2021) however, the prize money will be slightly less as it wasn't possible to collect all subscriptions during lockdown. If anyone hasn't paid their subscriptions and wishes to be included in the draw, please contact Ann Gracie 01204 302912

Urban Outreach - Christmas Dinner on

Jesus: This year Churches In Harwood have been asked to collect 200g cartons of gravy granules for the food hampers. As a parish we have been asked to collect 200. If you are able to donate, the final date is 7 December. Thank you for your continued support.
